Andrea Osterkorn Joins PLZ Aeroscience Management Team

Addison, IL March 2013 – Ed Byczynski, President PLZ Aeroscience, announced that Andrea Osterkorn has joined the PLZ Aeroscience leadership team as Vice President, Human Resources. “As PLZ Aeroscience continues to grow, investing in our employees and ensuring we develop programs and communication throughout all levels of the organization is critical to our long term success,” commented Byczynski.

Most recently, Osterkorn was a consultant for Farmer Brother Company, a national wholesaler and distributor of coffee, tea and culinary products. Her extensive experience in all aspects of the human resource function for national and multi-national companies will further strengthen the PLZ Aeroscience management team as the organization continues to grow throughout North America.

Company Information
